REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on September 15, 2004 has been entered.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The present invention is directed to a generator of a scanning velocity modulation deflection signal. Each independent claim identifies the uniquely distinct features: "a variable conduction device comprising a transistor, said transistor coupled to said generator and having a first input responsive to a negative feedback signal, and said transistor having a second input responsive to a control signal; and in a second condition said transistor interrupting said path and substantially inhibiting generation of said scanning velocity modulation deflection signal in response to said second input receiving said control signal". The closest prior art, Anderson (US Patent No. 5,072,300), disclose a circuit for selectively disabling normal VSM circuit operation when an on screen display generator is operation and both control and feedback signals are applied to the same input (the base of transistor 65), either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
